Her Legacy... born July 14, 1931 in Los Angeles, CA to Lowell and Marian Holt. Kathryn, Nana, Katie, Kay or just call me Coach. She worked full time, but still made time to coach soccer or umpire a game of softball. Kathryn was the “Coach” for the neighborhood kids. She always had a truck full of kids going to pizza or to the ball park for practice. Kathryn was very involved with her children in school. She loved music, especially singing in the church choir. She lived everyday by the Word of God and knew she was one of His children. Kathryn was a dedicated wife, mother, grandmother, Auntie, friend, coach, teacher, and a Bruin!

Her Family... survived by the love of her life Jack Lee, whom she married April 14, 1962 in Las Vegas. Three children sons Robert Lee, then Allen Lee twenty years later followed by a daughter Debra Truelock. Kathryn was the third child of six brothers and sisters, Joyce, Bill, Lowell, Steven and Susan.
