His Legacy
Ron was born November 10, 1945 in Tulsa, Oklahoma to Joe and Irene Smith. After proudly serving in the US Army, he moved to Oroville in 1962. He raised his family and lived here for the rest of his days. Known as “Bounty”, Ron was intensely loyal to his family, they were the center of his world and he lives on inside them. He loved to rise early in the morning and greet each new day. He liked to ride his motorcycle, camp, eat drop biscuits and enjoy the great outdoors. Ron and Donna Mae’s house became the center of family activities on special days and will continue to be. He will be greatly missed and always remembered in love.
