Edith Ray Ohlhausen

Her Legacy… Edith Ray Ohlhausen was born September 29, 1931 to Wilmer and Alice Guinn, in Panama City, Oklahoma. She was one of four sisters. She married Bert Ohlhausen on August 10, 1949. They had three children, Rusty, Dick and Beth. She followed her husband around the state as he worked in the construction trade for the Operating Engineers. Edith was a hair dresser for most of her adult life, a profession she loved doing. At one point she became a nurses aide, she loved helping others. She was a member in the Red Hat Society, loved to garden, and her biggest passion was making ceramic dolls, and hand sewing quilts. Edith and her family moved to Oroville in 1965, she told her husband this was her home and refused to leave, as he followed the construction trade. They bought a ranch south of the airport, and started raising cattle. When she retired they bought a home off of Monte Vista Ave where she lived until she became ill and went to Shadowbrook Care Facility, where she stayed until her death on January 8, 2012. Edith was 80 years young.

Her Family… Edith is preceded in death by her husband Bert, and her children Dick and Beth. She is survived by her sisters Dixie Canafax and husband Bob of Oroville, CA; Linda Turner and husband Larry of Oklahoma City, OK; and her son Rusty Ohlhausen and wife Tersia of Oroville, CA.
