His Legacy… Craig was born in Sheffield, England on January 24, 1963 to Arthur & Mavis Davies. He came to the USA with his brother Rob when they were just teenagers. By trade, Craig was an electrician, but by practice he was a trusting soul who would give anyone the shirt off of his back. He helped countless friends and family with car and home repairs. Craig regularly drove 3 hours to see his daughter and grand baby, both of whom he adored. For granddaughter Giselle’s 1st birthday he bought her a Baby Alive doll, remembering that his daughter had owned and treasured the same doll when she was small. Craig was a humorous, practical man. He wouldn’t have wanted us to be sad at his passing. He would have told us to “get on with it!” Just the same, it will be impossible not to wish he were still here. Craig Stephan Davies joined the Angels in Heaven on Feb 2012.

His Family… Craig’s passing was far too soon, and he will be sorely missed by those of us he left behind: his beautiful daughter Grace Victoria, his adorable granddaughter Giselle Savannah, his dear stepson Michael, his devoted sisters Sheryl and Carol, his caring brother John, as well as other family and friends in the Bay Area and England. Preceding Craig into that Heavenly Place were Craig’s dear mother Mavis, his father Arthur (who was quite a character), and his brother Rob, who was also his best friend. Together, they have all found Peace.

His Farewell Service …Memorials will be conducted in San Pablo at the Rockefeller Lodge on March 25th 2012 from 12-4pm, and in England at a later date. Arrangements were entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877.
