His Legacy... Charles S. Watson was born on October 12, 1930 in Oroville, California to Alfred and Lena Watson. Charles passed away on March 13, 2012. He lived almost all of his 81 years in Oroville. After serving in the Army during the Korean War Charlie worked for the Union Pacific Railroad and retired after 45 years. Charlie enjoyed pen and ink drawing, oil painting and gardening. His beautiful art work is displayed throughout his home. He had many friends in the Kelly Ridge area and enjoyed socializing with them. Charlie was a generous, much loved and appreciated Dad, grandpa, and great grandpa who is already missed so much by his family and friends.

His Family...Charlie is survived by his son Mark Watson, daughter Dana Barker, sister Connie Watson, 4 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren all of Oroville, CA; a brother Alfred Watson of Sacramento, CA and a niece and nephew. He is preceded in death by his wife Patricia A. Watson in 2002, his parents and a sister.

His Farewell Service ...No services are planned at this time. Arrangements are entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877