Her Legacy… Barbara Jean King was born on September 9, 1939 in Ellsworth, Kansas to Joseph H. and Hazel M. Ryan. Barbara passed away at home on March 17, 2012. She retired from Lucky Stores after serving 30 years as a meat wrapper while raising a family of seven children. Her hobbies included sewing, gardening, canning and quilting. Barbara was an avid reader, a poet, a collector of butterflies and possessed a love of the outdoors and family. She met her husband Milton in Napa, CA and they were married in Oakland, CA on March 16, 1968. She will be remembered by her family and friends as a loving wife, mother and grandmother.

Her Family… Barbara is survived by her loving husband of 44 years Milton (Bud) Jacob King of Oroville, CA; her six children; Cynthia Biggar of Chicago, IL; Kelly Schermerhorn of Benton City, WA; Cathleen Agenbroad of Laytonville, CA; Timothy King of Sacramento, CA; Cheryl Rassi of Redwood Valley, CA; and Jacob King of Oroville, CA. She is also survived by four sisters; Dorothy Beck, Beverly Robbins, Donna Jenkins, and Yvonne Mack; and one brother Gordon Ryan, 15 grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents, her brothers Don Ryan, and Jerry Ryan, her sister Jo Anne Kingsland and her son Kenneth Paul King.

Her Farewell Service… Celebration of Life will be held at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints on Friday, March 23, 2012 at 11:00 am. Reception is immediately following. Flowers may be sent in Barbara’s honor to the church. Arrangements have been entrusted to Oroville Funeral Home 530-533-0323