His Legacy... Philip A Revolinsky was born in Manitowoc, Wisconsin on August 23rd, 1922. Phil passed away in Carmichael, California on March 18th, 2012. Phil was a career soldier achieving the rank of Full Colonel. He fought in World War II and was in the Battle of Bulge. He was awarded the Silver Star for gallantry. After World War Two Phil stayed in the Army and made a career. He served for over 32 years in many countries and assignments to include Japan, Saudi Arabia, and Germany. Most notable, in Japan, was Chief of Honor Guard for General Douglas MacArthur later in his career. Phil commanded the 2 of the 37th Armor Battalion, the very unit that lead the break through to American troops in the Battle of Bulge. Phil retired from the Army in 1974 to Butte County. He was very active with the St John the Baptist Catholic Church in Chico, CA and St Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church in Oroville, CA over the years. His hobbies included hunting, fishing, woodworking, caring for his dogs, and was active in the Knights of Columbus charities. Phil met his wife Alberta in the Army and they were married in San Diego California in 1949. He will be remembered by his family and friends as a loving husband always by his wife’s side and a loving father.

His Family… Phil was preceded in death by his wife of 55 years, Alberta in 2004. Phil is survived by his 3 sons, 3 daughters-in-law, a daughter, a son-in-law and 9 grand children.

His Farewell Service … A Rosary will be held on Sunday, March 25, 2012 at 6:00 pm at St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church in Oroville, CA. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Monday, March 26, 2012 at 11:00 am at St. Thomas Catholic Church Oroville, CA with Burial to follow at Memorial Park Cemetery. Arrangements are entrusted to Oroville Funeral Home 530-533-0323