Lynn Diane Aiston Blodgett

Her Legacy… Lynn Diane (Aiston) Blodgett was born on December 14, 1946 in Oakland, CA, to William (Bill) H. Aiston, Jr., and Audrey (Coombes) Aiston. She passed away on Tuesday, April 10, 2012, after a two-month battle with a sudden illness. Lynn was a lifetime resident of Oroville, a 2nd generation graduate of Oroville High School, and retired from PG&E in December of 2011 after 37 years of service. She gave birth to her son, Eric, in 1971, and was an amazingly devoted single mother. Lynn was a long-time member of the Oroville Church of the Nazarene, where she served in numerous capacities, from nursery and children’s ministries to board and leadership roles to delivering meals in times of need. She also served for a number of years as a volunteer with the Crisis Pregnancy Resource Center. She was known and appreciated for her generous, caring heart and her hospitality, always looking for an opportunity to bless someone else. She loved her family dearly, in particular was a very proud grandma, and was a very caring friend with lifelong relationships. She loved Jesus as her Savior, and strove to live out that faith in all she did.

Her Family… Lynn is survived by her mother, Audrey Aiston of Oroville, her sister, Janet Jirel of Duarte, CA, her son, Eric Blodgett Aiston and daughter-in-law, Cindy (both of Cameron Park, CA); her grandsons, Cole and Simon; numerous cousins and quite a few grown up kids whom she loved as her own, who called her “Auntie Lynn”, or “Mom #2”.

Her Farewell Service … A Service to remember and celebrate Lynn will be held on Sunday, April 22, 2012 at 3pm at the Oroville Church of the Nazarene. Those wishing to send flowers may do so directly to the church. Donations can also be made in Lynn’s memory to the Caring for Women Pregnancy Resource Center or The Hope Center, both in Oroville. Arrangements are entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877.

Please sign their guest book at www.RamseyFuneralHomes.com

Oroville • Gridley

© Ramsey Funeral Homes 2007