Dirk M. Watson

His Legacy … Dirk M. Watson was born on January 23, 1955 in Oroville, California to Patricia (Cayton) Edwards and Harry M. Watson. Dirk passed away suddenly on Wednesday, June 13, 2012 in Oroville, California. Dirk worked as a butcher for 30 years, he started his career at the age of 16 working to cut meat at Jerry’s Market in Oroville in a school work program from Las Plumas High School. He worked as a butcher for Albertson’s, Raley’s and Lucky’s. Later he moved his family to Lincoln, Nebraska returning to Oroville in 2009. Dirk will be remembered for his great smile, his warm heart and his love of wanting to help everyone. If you had something that was broke, Dirk could probably fix it.

His Family… Dirk leaves behind his mother, Patricia Edwards, father, Harry M. Watson, sister, Roberta Shelton, his wife, Deedra Watson of Lincoln, NE; sons, Seth Watson of Oroville, Heath Watson, Derek Watson and daughter Monica Watson all of Lincoln, NE; 5 grandsons, 1 granddaughter, aunts, uncles, and cousins who will always love him and miss him dearly. We love you.

His Service… A Celebration of Life will be held at the VFW, 1901 Elgin in Oroville on June 22, 2012 at 2:00 pm. This is a potluck. Any questions please contact Roberta at 530-532-3303. Arrangements are entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877
