Loma Linda Gilligan

Her Legacy… On July 14, 2012 the Lord Jesus came for Loma Linda Gilligan and took her to her eternal home in heaven. She passed away at home with her family at her side. Loma was a native of Indianapolis, Indiana, moving to Southern California at the age of 3. She graduated from Southgate High School in 1954. She began her clerical career with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and retired from Oroville Hospital after 21 years of service. On March 21, 1968 Loma entered into the most joyous period of her life when she was wed to Ed Gilligan. Their families joined, and in 1975 they moved to Northern California settling in Oroville and made the Nazarene Church their second home. Her greatest joy beside her family and friends was traveling; her travels included many trips across the continental United States & Hawaii, and also to other countries, including Israel, Hong Kong, Ireland, Canada and Mexico. Loma will be remembered by her family and friends as a loving wife, mother, sister, grandmother and friend who truly loved Jesus and always spread joy.

Her Family… Loma is survived by her daughters Nancy (Michael) McCoy of Oroville, CA; Gail Gilligan of Paradise, CA; sister Bea Shirey of Centralia, WA; sister-in-law Bunny Merlo of Southern CA; daughter-in-law Virginia of Nevada City, CA; 3 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren and many loving friends. She is preceded in death by her dear husband of 37 years Ed, her parents Edwina & Harold McCoy, sisters Eva Mae McCoy and sons Dell and Jim Gilligan.

Her Farewell Service … Memorial Service will be held on Thursday, July 19, 2012 at 11:00 AM at Ramsey Funeral Home 1175 Robinson St. Oroville with a reception to follow at Church of the Nazarene 2238 Monte Vista Ave. Oroville. In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the American Cancer Society in Loma’s name. Arrangements are entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877.
