Lawrence “Pete” Redfern

His Legacy … Lawrence "Pete" Redfern was born in Blackburn, Arkansas on August 21, 1921 to William and Eva Redfern. He served in the Army in World War II and was a part of the Allied Forces invasion at Normandy. He was a carpenter for most of his life and retired in 1979. He and his wife Faye moved to Oroville in 1981. He loved to take extended road trips to visit family in Arkansas and Alabama. He was also fond of hunting and fishing and working in his garden until his health limited him. He was a member at the Oroville Church of the Nazarene where he was known as a humble, loving servant of Christ. He made everyone he met feel welcome. He will be greatly missed.

His Family… Pete is survived by his wife, Faye, (On July 17th, they celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary) a daughter, LaVerne Knight of Sweet Home, Oregon and a son, Ed Redfern of Oroville, CA, seven grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, and two great, great grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his grandson, Dean Knight of Oroville.

His Service… Family and friends are invited to attend a memorial service for Pete on Saturday, September 1, 2012, at the Oroville Church of the Nazarene, 2238 Monte Vista Ave., Oroville, CA beginning at 2:00 p.m. His remains will be placed in the military cemetery near Igo, CA. Arrangements are entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877.
