Jean C. Brown was born December 8, 1933 in Marshfield, Wisconsin to Melton and Hildegard Boucher. Jean was called home on August 26, 2012 in Oroville. Jean worked as a food sorter & crew leader at Stokely Van Camp, which later became Pacific Coast Producers, for 25 years. She retired in 1991. She and her husband Clem traveled extensively throughout the U.S & Canada. They also traveled to Jerusalem, Greece, Italy, and Switzerland. Jean loved to sing, crochet, and do word puzzles, bake, making jams, and doing crafts. She will be remembered for her thoughtfulness of sending birthday cards to members of her church and her family. She continued this throughout her long illness. Jean has been a member of the Nazarene Church for 42 years. She was a faithful servant to her Lord. While attending the Nazarene Church in San Jose, she and Clem had a Sunday school bus ministry. They would pick the children up so that they could attend Sunday school. She would treat them to cupcakes.

Jean is preceded in death by her father Melton, her mother Hildegard & a younger brother Jon. She is survived by her husband Clem of Oroville, CA; her sisters Mariese of Cabot, Arkansas, Shirley of Roseville, CA; her brother Melton and his wife Gloria of Oroville, CA; a step-daughter Becky of Sacramento, CA; a step-son Rod of Washington state, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at the Nazarene Church on Monte Vista on Thursday, September 6, 2012 at 11:00 am. Officiating will be Pastor Ed Redfern. There will be a graveside and reception. Arrangements are under the direction of Oroville Funeral Home 530-533-0323
