Helen Addis was born on August 14, 1913 in Oakland California to Emile & Louise Jaussaud both of whom were born in France. Helen passed away on August 28, 2012 in Lodi California. Helen called Oroville home from 1945 to 2010, she was 99 years old. Helen was a dedicated house wife, who loved to sew, cook, garden, bake and can foods. Helen also loved to play the organ with her friends in their organ group. She loved to travel and took several cruises, visiting Spain, France, Alaska and the Caribbean. She was a member of St. Thomas Catholic Church, The Ladies Alter Society, working in fund raising activities for both the church and school. She was a member of the Oroville Monday Club, and enjoyed working at election polling places over the years. Her family and friends miss her, but are thankful to the Lord for giving her a long, pain free and enjoyable life.

Helen was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Gordon Addis. She is survived by her son Ron of Santa Rosa CA; her daughter Louise and her husband Joseph Petitt of Lodi CA; along with 4 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.
