Stephen Douglas Johnson

His Legacy … Stephen Douglas Johnson was born on February 27, 1953, in Los Angeles, CA, to Ronald and Janice Johnson. Stephen passed away on August 30, 2012, in Oroville, CA, where he had resided for 56 years. He graduated from Oroville High School, Class of 1972. He was first employed at Solano Railcar, where he worked as a welder for a few years before being hired by Pacific Coast Producers, where he has worked as a mechanic for the past 23 years. Stephen’s hobbies included fishing, hunting, golfing, baseball, and bowling. Stephen was an avid SF Giants and SF 49er fan. Stephen and Cherel were high school sweethearts and after a small detour in life, they found each other again and began a beautiful life in 1985. He will be remembered by his family and friends as a loving husband, and father, who was loved by all who knew him.

His Family… Stephen is survived by his loving wife of 27 years, Cherel Johnson, his daughters, Kattie Johnson and Mendi Powell, both of Oroville, sons, Kory Johnson and Chad King, both of Oroville, and Christopher King of Yuba City. He is also survived by his sisters, Sheila Moseley, of Polluck Pines, Peggy Johnson, of Oroville, and Sue Mills of Keno, OR. Stephen was blessed with seven grandchildren and one on the way. He was preceded in death by his parents Ronald and Janice Johnson.

His Service… A viewing will be held for Stephen on Monday, September 10, 2012 from 5:00 to 8:00 pm at Ramsey Funeral Home 1175 Robinson St. Oroville. Friends and family are welcome. A Funeral will be held at Ramsey Funeral Home on Tuesday, September 11, 2012 at 10:30 am for all who knew him. Reception will follow 9/11 services at the Johnson home at 2204 Stump Drive Oroville, California 95966. Arrangements have been entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877.

Please sign their guest book at www.RamseyFuneralHomes.com

February 27, 1953
August 30, 2012