His Legacy… Clifton Jay Riddle Jr. was born on July 28, 1979 in Oroville, California to Clifton Jay Riddle Sr. and Jackie Prusia. J.J as known to his friends was taken suddenly from us on September 14, 2012 in Rancho Cordova, California at the age of 33. Those closest to J.J. laughed, cried, lived, and loved with him. They say that the brightest flames burn quickest and this epitomizes his approach to life. Not content to simply be alive, he lived, and as Walt Whitman wrote “…suck(ed) the marrow out of life…” J.J. was a loving father, giving brother, and diligent son. While his passing is tragic we will not mourn his absence but rather celebrate his life.

His Family… J.J is survived by his mother Jackie Prusia, his father Clifton J. Riddle Sr., his brother Cody Riddle, his sisters Makia and Cheyenne Whitfield, his 10 month old daughter Angelica Marie Riddle, maternal grandparents Pauline Serrao and Cecil Spencer Jr., paternal grandparents Pat and Cliff Riddle, as well as many aunts, uncles and cousins.
