Her Legacy… Emma Jean Vincent was born in Clarksville, Arkansas on March 24, 1909 to Samuel Ross Hurtt and Floy Graves. Her father was a steam-engineer and her mother a loving and talented homemaker. Jean attended elementary school in Clarksville, Arkansas Tec. at Russellville, Arkansas and De Anza College in Cupertino, CA. She met Francis “Vince” Vincent in Russellville where he was attending Navy Preflight School; it was love at first sight. They married in Dallas, Texas in 1944. Jean followed her Navy husband wherever he was ordered and always found an interesting job to keep her busy. After Vince retired, he and Jean moved from the Bay area to Kelly Ridge to enjoy the natural beauty, especially the lake on which they spent many happy hours. Jean worked in the Kelly Ridge Recreation office with her friend Nina Dunn for about 12 years. Jean was a member of the Foothill Blvd Church of Christ and the Kelly Ridge Social Club. She was very interested in Civic Beautification. Jean was on the Beautification Board in Gainesville and North Palm Beach, Florida. Both Jean and her husband Vince were very active in the Kelly Ridge Social Club. After retirement from the Kelly Ridge Recreation Club, Jean enjoyed volunteering full time working with her daughter Mary in Supervisor Bob Beeler’s office. “Jeannie” as her close friends called her will be missed by her loved ones and many friends. Jean passed away on October 2, 2012 in Oroville, California.

Her Family… Jean is survived by her daughter Mary Beth, who relocated to Oroville to be near her mother.

Her Farewell Service …Jean requested her ashes to be placed with those of her husband “Vince” at San Joaquin National Cemetery. Arrangements are entrusted to Oroville Funeral Home 530-533-0323.
