His Legacy… Perry Wesley Hawkins was born June 8, 1932 in Santa Paula, California to Leonard & Hazel Hawkins. He entered into rest on November 14, 2012 in the presence of his wife and 2 daughters. Perry learned the butcher trade from his father as a youth & continued this trade of a meat-cutter in the US Navy. After his military service he worked for Purity and Safeway, retiring from the Oroville Safeway where he was fondly known as “The Hawk”. Perry & Donna had a mutual passion for antiques and collectables, managing their own business in Oroville and then Sacramento, for many years. He also enjoyed working in his yard and in his workshop restoring lamps. He loved his family and gatherings together, especially when surrounded by his grandchildren & great-grandchildren. After he accepted Christ as Savior in 1996 he faithfully served the Lord until he was called home. Perry had amazing attention to detail. He saw what needed to be done, especially when it came to the church properties, and always made sure the tasks were finished. It was truly a wonder how much he could accomplish with a pencil and a yellow legal pad! He will be deeply missed by his church family.
