His Legacy... K.C. Hendrix Jr. entered into eternal rest on August 28, 2008 in Oroville, CA after bravely battling stomach cancer for several years. He was born on March 31, 1962 in Sacramento, CA to Patricia Deremiah and K.C. Hendrix Sr. both of Oroville. K.C graduated from Oroville High School with the class of 1980 and he was a Conductor for the railroad, Union Pacific, for 10 years where he really loved the people and took care of each of them. He loved the scenery that only he could see from the train. K.C. was an avid fan of the S.F. Giants and 49ers and he loved to travel with his family, especially to Ft. Bragg. K.C. will be remembered by family and friends as a loving and devoted husband, son, father and friend who put others’ needs before his own.

His Family... Beloved husband to Cheryn of Oroville; Father to Cherie Suarez of Sacramento, Kyle and Kurt of Evans, Colorado and Jake of Oroville; Brother to Laura Filbeck, Rachel Tomlinson and Veronique Steele; Grandson to Mildred Brazil, all of Oroville. K.C. also leaves behind 3 Grandchildren, his best friend Eddie Beasom, his Border collie “Jessi” and “Jamaica” his princess kitty. K.C. was preceded in death by his Grandparents Rosa Brown, Tuffy Hendrix and William S. Deremiah.
