Janese Iverson was born on July 13, 1968 in Woodland, California to Ronald Hinman and Barbara Hammond. Janese attended college and worked as a Phlebotomist. As a beloved wife, mother, daughter, sister, grandmother and friend, Janese touched many lives during her short time with us. She enjoyed camping, fishing, belly dancing, motor cycle riding and training her dog Zeus. She married the love of her life Daryl Marc Iverson on April 12, 1997 and she surrounded her husband and children with love. She was a member of the Oroville Church of the Nazarene. Her outgoing personality made it easy for Janese to make friends. With a smile always on her face she managed to brighten anyone’s day. Janese passed away on January 16, 2013 in Oroville, California. She will be remembered by family and friends as a loving, happy, strong, stubborn and independent woman who will be greatly missed.

Her Family…Janese is survived by her loving husband Daryl Iverson, her children Caitlin Iverson, Dylan Iverson, Jacey Iverson, Brittany (Steven) Simmons and Kortinee Iverson, grandchildren Zoey and Brooklyn, her mother Barbara and step father Bob Sage, grandmother Alene Hammond, and her sisters Rhonda Pauley and Vicki Scruby. Janese is preceded in death by her father Ron and her son Kyle.

Her Farewell Service …Her Funeral will be held on Wednesday, January 23, 2013 at 1:00 pm at the Oroville Church of the Nazarene on Monte Vista Ave. Oroville. Arrangements are entrusted to Oroville Funeral Home 530-533-0323
