His Legacy… Clyde Wilson Brown was born on November 8, 1916 in El Centro, California to Ervin Clyde & Lottie Brown. Clyde worked as a dairy farmer for 50 years before he retired. He was a member of the Seventh Adventist Church of Oroville, Marantha and Church Builders. His hobbies included restoring classic cars, antique cars and tractors. He was a true farmer. Clyde will be remembered by his family and friends as a loving & devoted husband, father, grandfather and uncle who will be deeply missed by all who love him. Clyde passed away on January 31, 2013 in Oroville, California.

His Family… Clyde is survived by his loving wife of 13 years, Bertha Brown of Oroville, CA; his children Desire & Bruce Bergman of Oroville, CA; his granddaughter Diane Speelman of Sheridan of Sheridan, MT; his great-grandchildren Judy & Jessie Singh of Oroville, CA; Stephen Speelman of Yuba City, CA; his daughter-in-law Carol Brown of Turlock, CA; and his sister Audrey of Graham, WA. He is preceded in death by his first wife Goldie Brown, his son’s Bobby Brown and Ronnie Brown.

His Farewell Service …His Graveside Service will be held on Wednesday, February 6, 2013 at 12:30 pm at Turlock Memorial Park Cemetery 575 North Soderquist Rd. Turlock, CA. Arrangements are entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877.