Her Legacy… Sophia Pauline Meza, of Oroville, passed away on March 8, 2013, at the age of 21 as a result of a short illness. With family and friends by her side, the Lord carried her home, and she greeted everyone with her unique “heller”! Sophia was born on January 31, 1992 in Montclair, California the daughter of Gloria Meza. Sophia grew up in Oroville and attended Oroville area schools. Writing was her favorite subject and she enjoyed writing poetry. Family and friends were Sophia’s joy; she lived her bohemian life style with charity and kindness for everyone. Sophia displayed her creative nature by her personal style and original make-up. Sophia especially loved her mother’s poodle Biggie. Sophia was a proud mother and adored her daughter Mila, and her legacy will live on through her. She was a treasured spirit, her compassion and giving heart will be cherished always by her mother. Sophia had a unique bond with her sisters and because of their life’s challenges it made their sister-bond unbreakable, they will be eternally BFF’s.

Her Family… Sophia is survived by her grandmother Joyce Roslof, her mother Gloria Meza, stepfather Chuck Wing, her aunts Vicky Roslof, Sandra Smith, Ann Roslof, and Joanne Navarez, her uncle Ed Roslof, her daughter Mila Flicker, her sisters Angela Martin and Priscilla Meza, as well as four nieces.

Her Farewell Service … A Memorial Service will be held on Wednesday, March 20, 2013 at 11:00 am at Ramsey Funeral Home 1175 Robinson St., Oroville. Memorial contributions can be made to a savings account established for Sophia’s daughter, Mila Flicker, at Chase Bank in Oroville. Arrangements are entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877.
