Her Legacy… Diane Theresa Scott was born July 27, 1940 to Manuel Mandriuges and Josefine Azevedo in Honolulu, Hawaii. She was called home to dwell in the house of the Lord on March 30, 2013. She came from a Catholic background and loved the Lord. She went to school in Hawaii until she moved to California. Diane’s passion for helping others showed through her work as a CNA for over 30 years. She spent her time enjoying her children, grandchildren, going to family functions, going to the casino and most of all helping others in need. Diane was a strong, compassionate, loving and caring woman. Her strength, will and the love for her family brought her through her struggles until it was time for the Lord to take her home.

Her Family… She is survived by her sons Charlie Sauers (Cathy) of Oroville, CA; Placido “Plus Da Main Man” (Lisa) Torres of Oroville, CA; Patrick Torres of Oroville, CA; Mathew Torres of Richmond, CA; Franklin Torres of Hawaii; Mario Torres of Hawaii; Alfred Thomas of Richmond, CA; Marlan Davis of Oakley, CA and daughters Trina Torres (Henry) of Oroville, CA; Chanel Wilson of Oroville, CA; Anna Torres (David) of Richmond, CA; LaKimberly Johnson of Sacramento, CA; numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents Manuel and Josefine Mandriuges; daughter Theresa Perry, son Gregory Torres; granddaughter Leimomi Murray; also her sisters Julia Torres and Barbara Torres. We want to give special acknowledgements to Margie Hubbard and Margaret Peon Del Valle as her special friends. Diane will be missed but not forgotten and we want to thank you for touching our hearts. We want to thank the family for your support.
