Her Legacy... Patti was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Pattie spent her final moments at home with her daughters Cyndie and Misty by her side; peacefully Patti went on to be with her parents on October 14, 2008. Patti was born on December 12, 1952 in Chicago, Illinois to the proud parents of Jim and Gayle Stewart. Shortly after her birth they moved to Oroville in 1954. Patti loved to dance. She collected many different things but her favorite was the American eagle. She always told her children that someday she would fly and now she is. Patti loved to shop at Thrift Stores. In 2003 she went to work at Oroville Lighthouse Mission. There she was truly happy and at her best. Patti was a thrift store junkie. She could smell a good thrift store a mile away. Patti was loved by many people in our community and will be greatly missed.

Her Family... Patti is survived by the love of her life, Robert Lansdale, Sr. of Oroville, their five children, Cyndie and Ed Rutherford of Oroville; Robert and Tammy Lansdale of Berry Creek; Leonard and Jaime Lansdale of Berry Creek; Misty and Jerry Stuck of Rosemond, California. Patti also had a daughter with special needs, Gayle Jones and a foster daughter named Anna Young. She has 36 grandchildren and 43 great-grandchildren, two brothers, Lester Jones of San Bernardino and Mike Stewart of Oroville, as well as many sister-in-laws, brother-in-laws, nieces, nephews and many friends. Patti was known for many things but one thing she loved was the nickname Patti Cake. She wanted everyone she loved to know she is at peace now and loves you all.

Her Farewell Service ...There will be a Memorial Service at 1999 Pine Street in Oroville at 2 p.m., October 21, 2008.
