Harold Leon Shettlesworth

His Legacy… Harold Leon Shettlesworth was born in Arkansas on December 5, 1924 to Elijah and Louisa Shettlesworth the baby of 10 children. His family moved to California in 1929. Lee left high school to join the Army during WWII. He was in the Army infantry in the South Pacific. Discharged with honors and he received a Purple Heart. After leaving the army Lee explored different occupations then began working in the construction field. He had found his niche. His nickname was powder man. It also allowed him to work side by side with his brother Frank who loved and admired. Lee passed away on April 9, 2013 in Oroville, California.

His Family… Lee leaves behind 10 children, Patty Canoy, Pauline Grubbs, Nate Shettlesworth, Rod Shettlesworth, Curt Shettlesworth, Tim Shettlesworth, Jeff Shettlesworth, Deedra Watson, Jane Shettlesworth and Neala Boswell, 26 grandchildren, 25 great grandchildren and his longtime wife and friend Marilyn Shettlesworth.

His Farewell Service … We invite family and friends to join us in a Celebration of Life “Potluck” and get together at the VFW Canteen, 1901 Elgin (corner of Lincoln Blvd.) on Saturday, April 20th, 2013 at 1:00 pm.
