His Legacy... Jack Larramore Brown was born on July 18, 1922 in Birmingham, Alabama to James & Lovada Brown. Jack passed away one day after he turned 91 on July 19, 2013 in Oroville, California. Jack and his twin brother Jimmy graduated from high school in Juno, Alaska. They joined the Army right out of school. They were both in the 101st Airborne 506 Parachute Infantry. Jimmy did not come home and Jack was a prisoner of war in Germany for 11 months before returning home. Jack worked on the pipeline in Alaska and on the Oroville Dam in 1960’s. Jack loved people & life; he loved animals & wild life. He enjoyed fishing, hunting but most of all he loved his family. Jack never married or had children, but he enjoyed his sister’s children visiting every summer from Washington. Jack & his mother attended the Thermalito Baptist Church for years. He was a member of the Oroville Masonic Lodge #103. Jack will be remembered as a great guy that would do anything for anybody.

His Family... Jack is survived by his sister’s children, 5 nieces & 1 nephew, Kelly, Jackie, Lindy, Robbie, Tracy and Jimmy. He is also survived by his extended family Debbie & David Deakins and their children and grandchildren whom he dearly loved as his own family. He leaves behind his beloved animals, 3 Chihuahuas, Buddy, Coco, and Peppy and 1 poodle Princess and his cat Poo. He is preceded in death by his twin brother Jimmy, his parents and his sister Juanita.

His Farewell Service... His Memorial Service will be held on Friday, August 16, 2013 at 11:00 AM at Ramsey Funeral Home 1175 Robinson St. Oroville, CA. In lieu of flowers donations can be made in Jack’s honor to the Northwest SPCA of Oroville. Arrangements are entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877.
