Jean Grace Legget

August 11, 1925
December 4, 2007

Her Legacy… Jean was born August 11, 1925 to August & Myrtle Treichler. She was born, raised and attended schools in Oroville. On February 22, 1954 she married Elbert “Al” Legget. Jean was a 50 year member of Native Daughters of the Golden West and she enjoyed reading historical romance novels and watching John Wayne movies. Family & friends remember her most for being a “tough old bird”. She definitely did it her way.

Her Family…She is the mother of Rusta McConnaughhay of Pleasanton and John Legget of Carmichael; grandmother of Tara McConnaughhay of Livermore; great-grandmother of Kylie Repose and sister of Ila Hemenway of Sacramento. She was predeceased by husband Al Legget, sisters Rosella Wade & Helen Johnson and brother Albert Treichler.

Her Farewell Service …Family & friends will gather at Ramsey Funeral Home Wednesday, December 12 for a viewing from 10 – 11:00 AM followed with a service at 11:00 AM. Arrangements have been entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home.
