Kevin Drew Diamond was born on April 14, 1963 in Murray, Utah and left us too soon on September 7, 2013 at the age of 50. Kevin and his family moved to California in 1977 where he attended Del Campo High School in Sacramento and played half-back for his football team. Kevin started working in Construction at the young age of 16, later becoming a general contractor. He moved to Oroville in 1988 to be near to his sister, Shanna, who set him up on a blind date with the love of his life, Lena Fleming, and within six months, Kevin and Lena were married on August 25, 1990. They had three beautiful children, Tyler, Brandon and Haylee who Kevin adored. Every day, he made it a point to tell each of them, "I Love You," as he felt Family was the most important thing in the world. Kevin believed in and recently accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and prayed faithfully every night. Kevin recently got a Harley Davidson motorcycle and found a passion for riding. He and Lena took long rides. Kevin loved to read, play cards, do yard work, and sit in the front swing and rock with any member of his family. Kevin loved to watch Tyler play football, wrestle and fight MMA. He was Tyler's biggest fan. Brandon and Kevin shared the love of hunting, shooting bows, playing darts, watching their favorite TV shows together, and going shopping at Cabela's to look at guns and ammo. Kevin loved to spoil his daughter, Haylee, who he lovingly nicknamed "Muffin," as she was his "baby girl". He loved watching her cheerlead, play softball, sing, take her shopping, and recently, they made several flower gardens together. Kevin loved his family and felt that family always came first. Besides his wife and children, he was especially close to his nephews, John Paul Mohr and Wade Atteberry. Although he had many other nieces and nephews that he loved and adored as well.

Kevin is survived by his wife of 23 wonderful years, Lena Diamond, his son Tyler, 22, Brandon, 21, and daughter, Haylee, 18. He is also survived by his Mother, Lorna D. Johnson, Step Dad Ron Johnson, Sisters, Nola Diamond and Shanna Haynes and brothers, Dick Alvord and Mike Alvord, his grandmother, Helen Diamond and many nieces and nephews on both sides of the family. He is pre-deceased by his father, Lowell Robert Alvord and brother, DelRoy Diamond.
