His Legacy...Lynn Moyle was born August 16, 1942 in Stockton CA., the only child born to Harold and Erline Moyle. He passed away October 17, 2013 in Gridley CA. He was raised in Stockton, where his father worked in the railroad yards. As a boy he was fascinated by the trains and spent many hours in the rail road yard. His family moved to Tahoe where he graduated high school. After high school he attended The College of Mortuary Science in San Francisco, beginning his life long career as a funeral director. He served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War stationed in Germany. After returning home from the Army he began working in the Los Angeles area, eventually working his way to the bay area. In 1976, he purchased the Block Funeral Home from Bill Manes and moved his family to Gridley. In the late 70’s, he and Robert Sharer owner of Gridley Funeral Chapel, went into partnership and named the business “The Gridley Block Funeral Chapel”. Lynn eventually bought Robert’s partnership and became sole owner. In 1992, he sold the business to Eric Ramsey, who continues to own and operate it to this day. After retiring in 1992, he moved to Tahoe for a short time, he moved back to Gridley to take care of his aging parents and coming back to work at the funeral home until his final retirement in early 2013. He was very active in the community, and served in many organizations including the Biggs Gridley Memorial Hospital board, he was a former member of the Gridley Kiwanis, Rotary, Moose Lodge, American Legion, and North Butte Masonic Lodge and served as captain of the Gridley Police Department Reserves. He was a member of Grace Lutheran Church.

His Family...He is survived by one son David Moyle, one daughter Teri Moyle, one granddaughter Shelby Hibbard and ex-wife Bev Moyle, all of Gridley.

His Farewell Service ...Memorial Service will be held on Friday, October 25, 2013, 2:00 pm at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints located on Spruce St. in Gridley.
