Local Farewells...

Lewis Raymond Newton

His Legacy... Lewis Raymond was born Jan. 3, 1971 in San Luis Obispo, CA to Nancy Jones and Jay Newton. Lewis was a logger for the past 20 years, working for several local logging companies. He loved to fish, listen to country, play pool and most of all he enjoyed spending time with his son and daughter and the rest of his family and friends. The three things Lewis loved the most were family, friends, and food. Lewis was always willing to help family and friends in need anytime day or night. He will be remembered as a person who always had a smile for you and for leaving everyone with a smile on their face.

His Family... Lewis is the father of Chanelle Newton and Joseph Newton and the grandfather to Danielle and DeMya. He is the son of Nancy Jones and the brother to Erik (Rebecca) Jones, Tev (Melissa) Newton, Jason (Mattie) Newton and Pam (David) Pierson. He is the uncle to several nieces and nephews and a friend to so many. He will be missed by all who knew him.

His Farewell Memorial Service... Will be held on Saturday, October 26, 2013, at 1:00 p.m. at St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, 1430 Pine St. Oroville, CA. A reception will follow at Feather Falls Lodge. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Bank of the West, 2626 Oro Dam Blvd. Oroville benefiting his son Joseph Newton. Arrangements are entrusted to Oroville Funeral Home (530) 533-0323
