His Legacy… Duard was born on April 29, 1921 in Rockville, Utah to Vinal & Vera Millet. He passed away on November 25, 2013 in Oroville, California. Duard influenced the lives of many young people in the Oroville area. He taught and coached at Oroville High School for over 28 years. One of his passions in life was playing and coaching basketball. Coach Millet will be remembered by many Oroville young men and women, not only as a great coach, but a mentor, friend, and role model. Duard once said “I’ve always tried to be fair to every boy and girl who played athletics. And there’s nothing like working with these young people.” He was a very loving man, husband and father. Duard met and married the love of his life, Shirley on March 24, 1945 in Tacoma, Washington. They spent the last 68 years together making and providing a loving and nurturing home for their children in Oroville, California.

His Family… Duard is survived by his wife Shirley, his six children, daughters, Gail Young, Karen Silva, and Darlene Pickern and son, Duard W. Millet. He is also survived by 12 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his two daughters, Jan Santos and Marcene Millet, his mother Vera Allred and step father John Allred and his father Vinal Millet.
