Her Legacy…Rochelle “Shell” Anne Ackerman lost her hard-fought battle with cancer and went home to be with the Lord on January 5th, 2014. Shell was born to LaVerne and Beulah Wilcox, in Jamestown, New York, on October 7th, 1939. Upon her move to Oroville California at an early age, she was raised by Phillip and Beulah Henry. She was a 17 year employee of Pacific Coast Producers and an avid pool player for many years with the Oroville Women’s Pool Team. She earned the title “Top Shooter” in 1995. Shell also loved watching bull riding programs. She married her childhood friend, Charles T. Ackerman on May 12, 1990.

Her Family…Rochelle had eight wonderful children: Vernon Bristow, Kimberly Henneman, Tony Hartman, Paul Gurule, Robert Hartman, and step-son Charles Ackerman. Rochelle’s brothers are Frank Wilcox, Phillip Henry, Daryl Henry, and Rodney Henry. She also had 13 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren along with many beloved nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband Charles T. Ackerman, children Cheryl DeLaney and Autumn Hartman, brothers Gary Wilcox, Ron Henry and sister Coni Baldridge.

Her Farewell Service …Family and friends will gather on Saturday, January 11, 2014 at 2:00 p.m. at Oroville Funeral Home, 1454 Montgomery St. Oroville, California. Following the service a Celebration of Life Gathering will be held at the Oroville Church of the Nazarene on Monte Vista Ave in Oroville, California. Private burial will take place at Memorial Park Cemetery in Oroville, California. Arrangements are entrusted to Oroville Funeral Home.
