His Legacy… George Mosier 92 of Oroville passed away on February 25, 2014 at Oroville Community Hospital. George was born on July 22, 1921 in rural Missouri to parents Cecil and Pauline Mosier. He was raised on the family farm and attended school in Aldrich, Missouri. He moved to California at age 20 and settled in Turlock where he soon met and married Fay Criswell of Modesto, the love of his life in 1942. They were married 53 years before Fay’s death in 1995. George enlisted in the Navy in January 1943 and served as electronics Mate 2/c aboard a Patrol Craft in the south pacific for the duration of the war. Returning home after the war George went to work at Don Pedro Dam as a Hydro-Electrician until 1967. At that time George and Fay moved to Oroville and he began working as an electrician for DWR at the dam where the power plant was being completed. George played an integral part in the initial checkout and startup of all the pumps and generators in the Oroville Project. After construction he worked on maintenance until he retired in 1985. George and Fay loved traveling, hunting, fishing and camping and finally had the time to go.

His Family… George is survived by his daughter Georgia Suprenant of Oroville, sisters Betty Criswell of Oroville, and Nelda Jane of Fair Play, MO; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.
