Her Legacy… Patricia Anne Sciortino was born on October 29th 1951 in Taunton, England. Patricia, known to most as Paddy, was born to James Birley, an Englishman native to India, and Sheila Roy Birley, a Scottish Londoner. Paddy spent her childhood years between England and British Columbia, Canada, and early teenage years in the Southern coastal town of Hastings, England, where she lived with her parents and late brother, Stephen Birley. Paddy and her mother moved to Southern California, where she finished high school before moving to San Jose, where she attended City College. Here she met the love of her life, Allan Sciortino, whom she married in 1970. A resident of Butte County for 31 years, she worked in accounting and finance for both small business and local government. Paddy was an Elvis aficionado, professional tennis enthusiast, a fan of basking in the sun, and of generally doing things her own way.

Her Family… Paddy is survived by her son Charlie Sciortino of Rohnert Park, CA, grandchildren Sofia and Santo, and numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews in California and across Europe. Additionally, she leaves behind many close family friends who will miss her greatly.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, July 12th at 1:00 P.M. at Oroville Funeral Home 1454 Montgomery St. Oroville who arrangements are entrusted 530-533-0323.
