Leroy Francis Tiedemann was born on November 8, 1919 in Glenwood City, Wisconsin to Pete and Ann (Volk) Tiedemann. Leroy passed away on July 1, 2014 in Oroville, California. He was married to Pauline Carnahan, Eloise Wright and Alice Johnson who are all deceased. He graduated from Oroville High School in 1938 and then joined the United States Army where he was stationed at Camp Beale (Beale AFB) in Marysville, California. Leroy worked most of his adult life as a truck driver, first hauling logs to sawmills, and then as a commercial driver. He also loved old cars. The family would like to say “Thank You” to everyone who cared for and helped Leroy in his final days.

His Legacy… Leroy Francis Tiedemann was born on November 8, 1919 in Glenwood City, Wisconsin to Pete and Ann (Volk) Tiedemann. Leroy passed away on July 1, 2014 in Oroville, California. He was married to Pauline Carnahan, Eloise Wright and Alice Johnson who are all deceased. He graduated from Oroville High School in 1938 and then joined the United States Army where he was stationed at Camp Beale (Beale AFB) in Marysville, California. Leroy worked most of his adult life as a truck driver, first hauling logs to sawmills, and then as a commercial driver. He also loved old cars. The family would like to say “Thank You” to everyone who cared for and helped Leroy in his final days.

His Family… Leroy is survived by his 2 sisters, Margaret Kennerson of Citrus Heights, CA; and Pat Fore (Sam Gaines) of Oroville, CA. Margaret had 5 sons John (Gail), David (Roberta), Dennis, Kevin and Pat (Joannie). Pat had one son, Robert J. (Cindy) Tiedemann of Oroville, CA. Robert had 3 sons, Dan (Shannon), Robert Allen, Chris (Breezy) and two daughters, Sherry (Bruce) and Shannon Rochelle. He also has many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who he loved dearly.