Douglas Wayne Thorp I

His Legacy… Douglas Wayne Thorp I was born February 16, 1935 in Stanford Texas. He entered into rest on July 31, 2014 at his daughter’s home in Oroville California. Douglas served in the U.S Navy from 1951 to 1953. Following the service he met and married the love of his life Anna Marie Tiedke on September 22, 1957. After living in Modesto for a time they moved to Los Angeles where their first son Douglas W. Thorp II was born. After moving back to Modesto two daughters Leeann and Dawn were added to the family. Then in 1979 the family moved to Alturas Ca. where Douglas retired from Citizens Utility Co. Douglas enjoyed hunting and fishing.

His Family… Douglas is survived in life by his children Douglas W. Thorp II, Leeann Anthony and Dawn Pollard, along with grandchildren and great grandchildren.

His Farewell Service… A Memorial remembrance gathering will be held next summer for both Douglas and Anna in Brookings, Oregon. The family and friends will be notified when it is scheduled. Arrangements are entrusted to Oroville Funeral Home 530-533-0323.