Ronald Ray Logan

His Legacy… Ronald Ray Logan passed away on Saturday, August 10, 2014. Ronald Logan was a man with a big heart and worked hard at everything he did. He was a Navy Seamen Veteran and received the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal (Taiwan Straits). Ronald served our country from 1956-1959. Most of his service time was spent deployed at sea on the U.S.S. Piedmont. Not long after being honorably discharged from the Navy he went to college and received his Bachelor of Science in Mining Engineering. He dedicated his life to keeping mining traditions alive. In the 80’s Ronald purchased 160 Acres of land called The New Era Mine. The land and mine are located in the outer area of Oroville, CA. Ronald managed several mining operations on his land and experienced both setbacks and success. During his time on the mine he had the opportunity to teach classes at Butte Community College. His area of expertise was in mining engineering. When Ronald taught class he had opportunities to explain to the students about what it takes to become a miner and also taught some of his class sessions on The New Era Mine.

His Family… Ronald Logan leaves behind his beloved wife Becky Logan, 3 Sons, 1 Daughter, 2 Stepsons, 1 Stepdaughter, 20 grandchildren and several great grandchildren.
