Eula Mae Perry

Her Legacy... Eula Mae Perry passed away Tuesday February 10, 2009 at Oroville Hospital, Oroville, California. Eula was born June 7, 1919 to Manuel and Gertrude Palacios in Shreveport, Louisiana. She was raised and educated in Mansfield, Louisiana. She served as an active member of New Home Missionary Baptist Church Oroville, California. Her hobbies included sewing, gardening, fishing, upholstery, baking and crafts but her true leisure time was spent reading the Bible. She was an active member of Easter Star for 40 years. She will be remembered by family and friends as a devoted Christian, mother to many, teacher of the Bible for others and one willing to lend a helping hand. In 1945 she married Jessie Jacobs and they later moved to San Francisco where he passed away. After being widowed she later married Lawrence Perry and moved to Oroville, Ca in 1987. Due to her loving and giving nature she was considered mother to many including her church family.

Her Family... Those left who will miss her include; her husband of 23 years Lawrence Perry, a step son James Jacobs of Shreveport, Louisiana, an adopted sister and friend of 61 years Rebekah House of San Francisco, CA, and many caring relatives including Matlene Smothers & family, Claudia Cato & family, Audrey Washington Scott & family, Lee Coleman & family Renee Marzell. Although she had no children of her own she raised her cousin Joe Jacobs as her son, from the age of three months, who preceded her in death.

Her Farewell Service... There will be a viewing from 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm with a service to follow at 1:00 pm Wednesday February 18, 2009 at New Hope Missionary Baptist Church, 4380 Lower Wyandotte Road, Oroville, CA. Memorial donations can be made to New Home Missionary Baptist Church in her honor. Arrangements are entrusted to Oroville Funeral Home. 530-533-0323
