JULIA SIMS

Her Legacy…Born on April 12, 1954 to C.W. and Lessie Mae Sims in Marion County, Mississippi, becoming the couple's 10th child. As so many of her older brothers and sisters did before her, she eventually made her way to California’s San Francisco Bay Area. It was there where she met and later married Eddie Daniels, a union that brought for her only child, Eddie Daniels Jr. Julian enjoyed a career in both the electronic and medical industries, but one of her most satisfying roles came in 2009 with the birth of her first grandchild, Evelyn. She often talked about a dream of a second, more feisty grandchild and that premonition came to fruition in 2012 with the birth of her second granddaughter, Aubrey. Both girls were born to Eddie Jr.’s wife, Stephanie Daniels, who Julia often called “the daughter I never had.”

Her Family…Also include her siblings Nathaniel Sims of Madera, CA; Curtis Sims (Spencenia), East Palo Alto, CA; Martha Pearl Zachary (Curtis), Modesto, CA; C.W. “Ray” Sims Jr. (Claudine), East Palo Alto, CA; Louise Thompson, Toledo, OH; Edward “Fret” Sims, Columbia, MS; Willie “Tet” J Sims, Oroville, CA; Gary Lowe (Mike), Columbia, MS; Fay Kitchens (Frank), Florence, MS; Lashonda Wheeler, Columbia, MS; Cassandra Wagner (Bill), Columbia, MS. She is also survived by a host of beloved cousins, nieces, and nephews.

On October 12, 2014, Julia’s job in the physical world came to a conclusion and she moved on to her new role of guardian angel. There are no words that can adequately express the emptiness we feel without your smile, laugh, and warmth. You will always be loved and cherished no matter where you are. Your beautiful spirit lives on in your two granddaughters. God blessed us with you, now it’s your turn to receive the ultimate blessing.
