Chuck Orman

His Legacy… Charles “Chuck” Orman was born on August 22, 1973 in Oroville, California to Danny and Deborah Orman. Chuck passed away and went home to be with the Lord on October 30, 2014 in Oroville at the age of 41. Chuck moved to Homer, Alaska in 1991 and graduated from school there. Between high school and college he fished and cooked on commercial fishing boats in Alaska. He attended college in Minnesota receiving an AA degree in telecommunications, graduating in 1996. He traveled the world in his new career. Chuck loved the outdoors, camping, fishing, boating, cooking and barbequing, he loved anything to do with nature, he also enjoyed reading and learning about history. Most of all he loved to spend time with his family. Chuck will be remembered and missed by all that really knew him, never forgetting his warm smile and sparkling green eyes. He was a gentle and loving son and brother who loved people and loved Jesus. He will be truly missed.

His Family… Chuck is survived by his son Brycen of Vancouver, WA; his mother Deborah Deakins, step father of 26 years David Deakins, brothers Brent and Danny “Alan” Orman, step brother Chad of Alaska, sisters Tracy (Roy) Simon, Christina Orman, and step sister Nicki, Uncle Stephen Rule of San Diego, Aunt Janet of WA, Aunt Corry of Yuba City, Aunt Bev and Uncle Scott Simms of Merced, grandparents Tony and Margaret Ponciano of Lake Almanor, step mother Yvonne Orman, step sisters Denise and Deanna, as well as numerous nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his father Danny Orman.

Helping Families Begin Healing
Ramsey Funeral Homes
Oroville • Gridley
©2014 Ramsey Funeral Homes