Mary E. Reniff

Her Legacy… On Monday, February 2, 2015 Jesus called Mary Elizabeth Reniff, 86, of Oroville, California home. Mary was born to Louis and Lorene Smith on April 16, 1928 in Bogard, Missouri. Mary grew up on a Missouri farm with brothers Vernon, Don, Jack and two sisters Billie and Barbara. On December 25, 1947, in Seattle, Washington Mary married Mack Reniff. They traveled and worked throughout the United States raising their sons, David, Nick, Perry, and Bryan and settled in Oroville, California in 1966. In 1979 Mary became a member of the Calvary Baptist Church where she was known for her service to others. For over 20 years Mary operated the M & M Walk In on Bridge Street where her food service came with a side of sage advice to thousands of Oroville High School students, who remember her dearly. After retirement, in 2003 Mary joined the Oroville Hospital Auxiliary and increased her volunteer service to the Community.

Her Family… Preceding Mary in death are her husband Mack, brothers Vern and Don, sister Barbara, granddaughter Shannon. Surviving Mary, are her sister Billie, her brother Jack; her sons David (Kathy) of WA, Nick (Michele) of OR, Perry (Julie), and Bryan; her grandchildren Ken, Kitsy, Matthew, Beth, Sharon, Miranda, Brittany, and Sydney, and 15 great grandchildren.
