His Legacy... Marvin H. Lemburg, 88, was born April 14, 1921 in South Dakota, and passed away April 14, 2009 in Oroville, California. He will be inurned in Marshall Cemetery at a later date. He was a warrior battling a diagnosis of cancer in the beginning of 2009. Marvin’s parents, George & Alma Lemburg, moved to Marshall when Marvin was 3 years old where he grew up, attending Marshall Schools; graduating from Marshall High School in 1939. The family owned and operated Lemburg-Dray Moving and Storage. Marvin attended Sioux Falls College. He retired from the Los Angeles Unified School District as senior tool sharpener where he was in charge of over 200 schools. He was a member of the Yuba-Sutter Amateur Radio Club in California where he volunteered for countless activities including assisting with the club for the Gridley Police Department with amateur radio emergency equipment and antennas in the event of an emergency where 911 fails. Within the past 5 years he also assisted the Marshall Fire Department with the old fire truck by getting her to run again. Marvin returned home to Marshall for summers following Betty’s death. His call sign has been silenced.

His Family... Marvin met his wife Betty Lou (Pearcy) at a beauty contest which was being held in Lynd where Betty was born and lived. They were married in Los Angeles on September 25, 1942. Betty returned to live with her mother, Ida A. (Ballard) Pearcy three months later when Pearl Harbor was bombed and the United States entered WWII. Marvin joined the U.S. Air Force. Following the war, they returned to California. Marvin & Betty were life partners. Betty passed away in December 2000. By so many, Marvin was known for his sense of humor and his kindness to others, often helping and donating his amazing knowledge, and always placing others first. Marvin is survived by his son Tim (Judith) Lemburg of Columbia Falls, Montana; his daughter Nancy Dalana Lemburg of Gardnerville, NV, grandsons Scott, Jon, Steve Lemburg and their families; granddaughters Shawnee, Amber and their families, 11 great-grandchildren, brothers Gordon (Clarice) Lemburg of Garden Grove, CA; Larry (Janie) Lemburg of Tucson, Arizona; his God-Daughter Shirley (Will) Ritto, and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends. Marvin is preceded in death by his parents George & Alma and his step mother, Marie, all of whom he dearly loved.
