Thelda May Rummel was born May 23, 1927 in Norden, Nebraska to Basil and Esther Kast. She was the last living descendant of nine children. Thelda passed on March 8, 2015 while at home surrounded by loving family. Thelda was married to Donald Rummel, her one in a million as she would tell everyone. Together they lived in Oroville for the past twenty nine years. Thelda was credited for starting the first all-women’s U.S. Forestry cook crew, called the Plumas Fryers. Her hobbies included camping, snowmobile riding, fishing at Bucks and Oroville lakes with her family and caring for others.

Her Family... Thelda is survived by her loving husband Donald Rummel, son Eugene Difuntorum of Oroville, daughter Linda (Jeff) Satterburg of Oroville, son Dale (Merry) Ackley of Arkansas, daughter Gale (Gene) Holbrook of Arkansas, daughter Joan Keehn of Texas, daughter-in-law’s Rosie Difuntorum and Yvonne Ackley of Woodland, numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren. A very heartfelt thanks to Winie who assisted in caregiving for my wife and our mother. She is preceded in death by her sons, Rudy Difuntorum, Gerald Ackley, Tom Ackley, and Don Ackley and grandson Bobby Holbrook.

Her Legacy... Thelda May Rummel was born May 23, 1927 in Norden, Nebraska to Basil and Esther Kast. She was the last living descendant of nine children. Thelda passed on March 8, 2015 while at home surrounded by loving family. Thelda was married to Donald Rummel, her one in a million as she would tell everyone. Together they lived in Oroville for the past twenty nine years. Thelda was credited for starting the first all-women’s U.S. Forestry cook crew, called the Plumas Fryers. Her hobbies included camping, snowmobile riding, fishing at Bucks and Oroville lakes with her family and caring for others.

Her Family... Thelda is survived by her loving husband Donald Rummel, son Eugene Difuntorum of Oroville, daughter Linda (Jeff) Satterburg of Oroville, son Dale (Merry) Ackley of Arkansas, daughter Gale (Gene) Holbrook of Arkansas, daughter Joan Keehn of Texas, daughter-in-law’s Rosie Difuntorum and Yvonne Ackley of Woodland, numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren. A very heartfelt thanks to Winie who assisted in caregiving for my wife and our mother. She is preceded in death by her sons, Rudy Difuntorum, Gerald Ackley, Tom Ackley, and Don Ackley and grandson Bobby Holbrook.