Betty Jean Braaten

Betty Jean Braaten, 87, previously of Palermo, passed away in Centralia, WA on March 10, 2015. She was born to Horry & Lillian Springsteen in Payette, Idaho on January 28, 1928. In 1945, she attended Sacred Heart Nursing School in Spokane, where she later worked as a Registered Nurse. She married Terry L. Braaten on November 20, 1948 and they raised 6 children together. Her hobbies included, gardening, card playing, reading, hiking, golf and candy making. She was an avid bowler. When she lived in Oroville she was very active in the bowling leagues at Central Lanes. She often had games over 200. Betty and Terry were active founding members of Palermo Baptist Church and were active volunteers for construction projects at Camp Bethel in Hoquiam, WA. After retirement Betty and Terry did extensive traveling, including RV camping in Southern California and Arizona, and summers in Northern California. They also spent significant time in Oaxaca, Mexico building an orphanage. Her greatest legacy, along with Terry, was raising their six children to become hard-working, honest, and responsible people.
