Lee W. Hollen

His Legacy… Lee Hollen was born on September 24, 1936 in Fort Worth, Texas to Troy and Oleta Hollen. Lee passed away on April 6, 2015 in Oroville, California. Lee made his way west when he, his father and his brother Troy rode the freight train from Texas to California. Lee attended Oroville High School and served in the United States Navy during the Korean War, where he was an aircraft mechanic. He married the love of his life, Arlene Francis Tiddwell, and was together 48 years until her death in 2002. Lee worked at and managed the Freeway Shell service station for over 20 years. He also served as a volunteer for the Oroville Fire Department for years, and worked as a Retired Volunteer Fireman up until December of 2014. His strong faith in God and belief in Jesus determined his life principles & values, which were love, honor, generosity, helpfulness and loyalty to family and friends. He especially had a strong work ethic which he modeled for all to see.

His Family… Lee is survived by his son, Gary (Julie) Hollen of Oroville, his brother Troy Hollen of Alaska, 4 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren & numerous beloved nieces and nephews.
