In Loving Memory
Lois Lindberg

Her Legacy…Lois Lindberg, 96, of Richvale, passed away April 6, 2015 in Gridley. She was born in Butte City, CA, on September 10, to John and Jessie Price. Lois attended grammar school in Butte City and graduated from Princeton High School. After graduation she went to Healds Business College in Sacramento. Lois was married to Bob Olmstead and they owned the Richvale and Nelson grocery stores in the late 40’s. Lois then married Harry Kister and went to work at Currier Brothers grocery as head clerk. She always participated in the Father Fiesta Day Parades on Currier’s floats. After 25 years, she retired from Raley’s. She and her friends took many trips. Lois married Ole Lindberg and they farmed rice until they retired and traveled. Lois had a great love of animals.

Her Family…Lois is survived by one daughter, Elaine Addington of Richvale, six grandchildren, Linda Faunce, Kasey Snodgrass, Mindy (Byron) Garrick, Tina Kreisman, Amy Addington, Brian (Georgia) Addington, ten great-grandchildren, and five great-great-grandchildren.

Her Farewell Service…Lois will be laid to rest at Marvin Chapel Cemetery. With respect of her wishes, there will be no services held.
