William Henry Joel Acuff

His Legacy....
He was an angel on loan from heaven,
Whose recall time brought tears.
Why the good ones aren't allowed to stay,
Is never really clear.

The Lord must have a special place.
For He's organized, you know.
But it didn't make it easier
For us to let him go.

His warmth will linger everywhere,
He'll never be far away.
For he's gentle like snow on a winter morn,
and bright like flowers in May.

He was an angel on loan from heaven,
And the lives he touched were blessed.
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,
But know he's with the best.
