His Legacy... Cameron Vittorio Sabatino was born on March 20, 1998 in San Diego, California. Cameron passed away on May 1, 2015 in Oroville, California. He was 17 years old, a junior at Las Plumas High School. Cameron was well known for his athletic abilities and his love of basketball. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends. We have been told by many that he is known also for his smile. He always seemed to have a smile on his face and went out of his way to make others feel good. Cameron has touched so many people in his short life and those who had the privilege to know him loved him. Cameron had plans for his life. He wanted to go into the Army to become a military police officer to later become a part of law enforcement. He will always be remembered by his family and friends and will never be forgotten and is already missed. He will always be our shooting star!

His Family... Cameron is survived by his parents Chris and Markelle Sabatino, his brothers Joseph Warner, Tim Hill, Ayden Hill, his sisters Cara Sabatino, Mikaila Sabatino, Destiny Warner and Zoey Shaw. He is also survived by his grandparents Lani Dupret, Linda Kostiew, David Hill and Denise Byram as well as numerous aunts, uncles and cousins in addition to his nephew Malaki and niece Abriella Sabatino.
