John Dobrzynski Jr.

His Legacy... John Joseph Dobrzynski, Jr., age 44, died Tuesday, March 15th at his home in Northern California after complications from an automobile accident. John grew up in Wilmington, Delaware and later moved to Landenberg, PA with his wife and best friend, Jaclyn, before they settled in Oroville, California. John was the owner of the Dobrzynski's Tree Service for 15 years. John was an avid sportsman who's interests included fly fishing, hunting and scuba diving. Unbeknownst to many, he was also a phenomenal chef. He and Jaclyn traveled the world in search of the best fishing spots and their adventures are legendary. His coveted fly fishing rivers included the Pit, Upper Sacramento & Trinity Rivers in Northern California.

His Family... He is preceded in death by his brother Eddie in 2001, his mother Elaine in 2014 and his canine companion Jetty in 2015. He is survived by his wife of 10 years, Jaclyn, his dad and best friend, John (Jack, "pollack"), his sister Debbie and Marc, a niece, June and many close and life long friends including his three faithful canine companions, Lilly, Bailey and Maddy who saw John as their pack leader. They will miss him tremendously.
