Her Legacy... Ann V. Garecht was born on November 18, 1928 in Lefor, North Dakota to Nick & Anna Anton. Ann passed away on July 3, 2009 in Oroville, California. Ann a very spirited woman met and married the love of her life Nickolas J. Garecht (also known as Bud) on June 10, 1947. They spent 62 years making a life together and raising their 4 children. Ann attended St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church and was a member of the Alter Society. Her hobbies included clogging, golf and spending as much time with her family and friends. Ann will be remembered by family and friends as a loving, dedicated wife of 62 years, mother and doting grandmother who was an inspiration to us all.

Her Family... Ann is survived by her loving husband Bud Garecht of Oroville, CA; daughter Cindy Quinones of Pittsburg, CA; son Tom Garecht of Danville, CA; daughter Gigi Puckett of Concord, CA; son Scott Garecht of Danville, CA; grandson Kenny Quinones of Vallejo, CA; granddaughter Kim Quinones of Concord, CA; grandson David Lavezzo of Henderson, NV; grandson Michael Quinones of Pittsburg, CA; granddaughter Natalie Garecht of Walnut Creek, CA; granddaughter Chelsea Garecht of Danville, CA; grandson Chris Puckett of Concord, CA; granddaughter Nikki Garecht of Danville, CA; granddaughter Ashley Garecht of Danville, CA; grandson Ethan Puckett of Concord, CA; and other family and friends who will miss her greatly.

Her Farewell Service ... A Rosary will be held on Wednesday, July 8, 2009 at 7:00 pm at Ramsey Funeral Home 1175 Robinson St, Oroville, CA. A Funeral Service will be held on Thursday, July 9, 2009 at 10:30 am at St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church 1330 Bird St. Oroville, CA. Burial will follow at Memorial Park Cemetery 5646 Lincoln Blvd. Oroville, CA with reception to follow back at St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church. Arrangements have been entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877

Please sign their guest book at www.RamseyFuneralHomes.com

Oroville • Gridley