His Legacy... Roy was born on April 18, 1916 in Randolph, Kentucky. As a teenager he carried mail on his horse in Metcalf County and also had the opportunity while in Indianapolis to be a substitute Indy 500 driver coming in 3rd place. He was a real cowboy riding in several rodeos and calf roping events and herding cattle on ranches in Gridley and Nevada. During WWII he worked on the Boger Ranch in Gridley. He was a hunting guide for Roy Rogers and wrangler in a John Wayne movie. Roy was a police officer for Gridley & Oroville police departments and served two terms as Constable in Butte County. He was known as a pistol crack-shot in law enforcement competitions. He was the founder of Butte County Patrol – Private Security. He enjoyed hunting pheasants and collecting coins since he was a young boy. Family and friends will miss him greatly and remember him for all the wonderful stories he shared over the years.

His Family... He is the father of Patsy McComas of Oroville, Shirley Schroeder of Yuba City, Joan Weber of Grass Valley, Melody Yen of England, and Veronica O’Neill of Kansas; grandfather of 12; great-grandfather of 19 and brother of Ern Grider and Madaline Brewer.

His Farewell Service ... Family & friends will gather for a funeral service on Sunday, January 20, 2007, 2:00 PM at Ramsey Funeral Home. A graveside burial service will be held Tuesday, January 22, 2007, 1:30 PM at Memorial Park Cemetery.